BEAR SIGNAL at 14,510.13

A neutral day within a developing bear trend. Poised for further downside tests within the broad consolidation phase, as the Bear Signal deepens. A close below the 12,801~ low of 1 January would add fresh downside pressure, and open up critical support at the 10,800 low of December. A close above 16,570 is needed to reinstate bullish sentiment and open up the 19,458 high of December.
