BEAR SIGNAL at 14,510.13

Sentiment continues to weaken with prices now pressuring the 12,801~ low of 1 January. Falling momentum studies and the deepening Bear Signal highlight a break beneath here. Subsequent focus will turn to critical support at the 10,800 low of December as investors further reduce exposure. A close above 15,000 would delay downside risks. But a further close above 16,570 is needed to reinstate bullish sentiment and open up the 19,458 high of December.
